Subject: Invitation to 21st International Bhurban Conference on Applied Sciences & Technology (IBCAST-2024),
August 20-23, 2024, Murree Hills, Pakistan

Dear Dr. Vlad Mureşan,

We feel honored and pleased in inviting you formally as an Invited Speaker in the track of Artificial Intelligence & Software Technologies in above conference being organized with the technical co-sponsorship of IEEE. We hope you will be coordinating closely with the Program Coordinator of the track to finalize talks and your role during the conference. This year IBCAST will take place at the Murree Hills which is a popular hill station with glorious view of landscapes and mountains. It is at a 50 minutes drive from the capital city Islamabad.

With regard to your travel to IBCAST, we should like to ask your cooperation in buying locally an economy class air-ticket, unfortunately not pre payable from Pakistan. IBCAST sponsors air-ticket with a preferred price around the limit of One Thousand US Dollar. Upon presentation of the relevant stubs you will be reimbursed upon arrival on the basis of ongoing exchange rate. Upon arrival a transport from Airport to Conference will be provided. Local hospitality covers the hotel accommodation and meals during the conference. To avoid inconveniences please make sure before departure that the date of returned flight is confirmed.

For visa to enter Pakistan one should apply to nearest Pakistan Embassy or Consulate by presenting the relevant documents along with this Invitation Letter from IBCAST, Pakistan. We will be pleased to do utmost to help our invited speakers in acquiring visa. However, in no case should speaker leave without a valid visa and the passport. If you need any other information, may contact us at given numbers.

Sincerely yours,
SEMŃATURĂ OLOGRAFĂ REDACTATĂ
